

Kalbaugh Pond at the Robert W. Craig Campground

Kalbaugh Pond is accessible and designed for use by the physically challenged visitor and their families. All pond facilities are ADA compliant. It is located in the Robert W. Craig Campground at Jennings Randolph Lake, however camping is not a requirement for its use.

The paved handicap parking lot is sized to allow parking of two side loading wheelchair lift vehicles simultaneously. The parking lot, paved pathway, and paved pond shoreline are all bordered with pressure treated timbers. The fishing pier is also ADA compliant.

Fishing Rules

Only physically challenged visitors and their families are permitted to drive and park at the pond.

Fishing licenses are required with the exceptions of West Virginia residents 65 years of age or older and residents or non residents under the age of 15. The Kalbaugh Pond is a CATCH AND RELEASE pond.
